ARTHUR CENTER YOUTH SERVICES

Arthur Center Youth Services are designed for families who need a little more support than is typical while their young family member receives treatment.

Each family partners with the Youth Services Team to build a network of family supports that centers on the real needs of their family.

The family support team works together in developing a plan that is practical, flexible, and will identify needed supports to help reduce symptoms and improve overall family well-being.

Arthur Center Youth Services staff are professionals in the fields of psychology, sociology, counseling, social work, or a closely related field of study.

Services include:

- Targeted Case Management
- Medication Management
- Community Supports
- Therapy/Counseling
- Family Supports
